30424226. Lord Griffith ap Madoc & 30424227. Emma de Audley
30424232. Lord John de Sudeley & 30424233. Sibyl de Say
30424234. Lord John de Montfort & 30424235. Alice de la Plaunche
30424240. Lord William de Beauchamp & 30424241. Isabel Mauduit
30424246. Lord Robert de Muscegros
30424250. Baron Owain de la Pole & 30424251. Lady Joan Corbet
30424576. Lord Thomas Fitz William & 30424577. Agnes Bertram
30424578. Lord Richard de Grey & 30424579. Lucy de Humez
30424580. Baron John Deyncourt & 30424581. Agnes de Neville
30424592. Sir Thomas de Clinton & 30424593. Mazera de Bisege 30424596. Lord William de Oddingseles & 30424597. Joan ?
30424598. Sir Walter Fitz Robert & 30424599. Ida Longespee
30424672. Sir Thomas Mauduit & 30424673. Joan de Bassingbourne
30424676. Sir Bevis de Knovill & 30424677. Joan de Muscegros
30424700. Thomas le Tabler & 30424701. Isabel Giffard
30424712. Robert Pakeman & 30424713. Beatrice ?
30424768. Sir Ralph Bellers & 30424769. Isolda de Sixtenby
30424784. Sir Gilbert de Houby & 30424785. Maud de Kirkeby

Posted by Bond0007 at 3:13 PM

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 5, 2011

G25: 19989528

19989528. Earl Gilbert de Clare & 19989529. Isabella Marshall

~1182, Gilbert born in England, s/o 39979056. Richard de Clare & 39979057. Amicia, Countess of Gloucester.

10/9/1200, Isabella born at Pembroke castle, England, d/o 94559174. William Marshall & 94559175. Isabel de Clare.

6/1202, Gilbert entrusted with the lands of Harfleur and Mostrevilliers.

1210-11, Gilbert granted Welsh lordships by King John and fortified the castle of Buelth.

11/9/1215, at Runnymede, Gilbert, 1 of only 25 Barons selected by the rest [his father was also selected], to enforce the Magna Carta. (S) An Historical Essay on the Magna Charta of King John, Thompson, 1829, PP301–3.

12/16/1215, Gilbert excommunicated by the Pope.

10/18/1216, King John died.

10/28/1216 at Gloucester, Henry, 9 years old, crowned King Henry III.

5/19/1217, Gilbert, championing Louis the Dauphin as heir to the crown over Henry III; fighting at Lincoln under the Baronial banner; taken prisoner by his future father-in-law William Marshall.

10/9/1217, Gilbert married Isabella.

11/1217, With the death of his father, Gilbert recognized as Earl of Hertford.

1/1218, John de Brewes and his brothers released as hostages after intercession by their uncle, Gilbert de Clare.

1219, Gilbert recognized as Earl of Gloucester in right of his maternal descent through his mother and an aunt.

4/8/1219, Phillip of Hertford and Beatrice, his wife, give the king 40s. for summoning Gilbert earl of Gloucester before the justices at Westminster. (S) FRsHIII.

4/25/1220, Gilbert earl of Gloucester has made fine with the king by 100 m., …, for having custody of the lands and heirs of Walter de Treyly, with the marriage of the heirs. (S) FRsHIII.

1220, In a letter to King Henry III, Hugh de Vivon explained his reasons for not returning Bristol castle to Gilbert de Clare, earl of Gloucester, including the fact that his loyalty to Henry himself and to his father John had cost him his own “rich and fertile lands” at home across the seas.

7/1222, Gilbert ordered by the King to stop attacking Dinaunt Powys castle in Wales.

5/2/1224, Order to cause G. earl of Gloucester to have five tuns of the 40 tuns of wine that he lately took to the king’s use in the vill of Bristol at the same market price. (S) FRsHIII.

11/1224, Gilbert, earl of Gloucester, held the market at Great Bardfield, Essex. (S) Gazetteer of Markets and Fairs.

1225, Gilbert present when Henry III confirmed the Magna Carta.

10/29/1226, G. de Clare, earl of Gloucester, has made fine with the king by 2000 m. for marrying his first-born daughter to Baldwin, son of Baldwin de Redvers, son of William de Redvers, earl of Devon, and for having 200 librates of land in simple custody, without the castle, from the land formerly of the aforesaid W. earl of Devon until the aforesaid Baldwin comes of age. (S) FRsHIII.

1227, Gilbert supported Richard, Earl of Cornwall, the King's brother, in a dispute with Henry III over the forest laws and misgovernment by Hubert de Burgh.

1228, Gilbert led an army against the Welsh and captured Morgan Gam, who was released the next year.

1228, Gilbert discovered iron, lead and silver mines in Wales.

4/30/1230, from Portsmouth, King Henry, with the help of Mauclerc, Count of Brittany, invaded Brittany in hopes of recovering Normandy. They established their camp at Nantes, and captured a small castle.

10/25/1230, Gilbert died at Penros, Brittany, France; his body conveyed by way of Plymouth and Cranbourn to Tewkesbury; buried before the high altar 11/10/1230.

3/30/1231, Isabella married 2nd Richard of Cornwall, brother of Henry III. [4 children, none surviving.]

1/17/1239, Isabella, countess of Gloucester, Hertford, Cornwall and Poitiers, died in childbirth at Berkhampstead, Hertfordshire. She ordered her heart be sent to her brother, the abbot of Tewkesbury, to be buried with her 1st husband. Her body was buried at Beaulieu Abbey. (S) The History of Tewkesbury, Bennett, 1830, P173.

(S) Magna Carta Ancestry, P194.

Family notes:

- 11/6/1231, H. de Burgh, earl of Kent and justiciar of England , has made fine with the king by 7000 m. for having custody of the lands formerly of G. de Clare, earl of Gloucester and Hertford, until the earl's heirs come of age, with the custody and marriage of the same heirs. (S) FRsHIII.

Children of Gilbert and Isabella: [3 sons, 3 daughters]

i. Richard de Clare (9994764), born 8/4/1222 in England.

Posted by Bond0007 at 9:56 PM

SUNDAY, JULY 31, 2011

G24: 11820320

11820320. Baron Roger de Mowbray & 11820321. Rohese de Clare

Search Amazon.com for Journal of the House of Lords

10/17/1252, Rohese born in England, heir & d/o 9994764. Richard de Clare & 9994765. Maud de Lacy.

1257, Roger born in England, s/o 23640640. Roger de Mowbray & 23640641. Maud de Beauchamp.

1262, Rohese's father died.

10/18/1263, Grant to Richard, king of the Romans, of the wardship of the lands late of Roger de Mowbray … and with the marriage of the heir … . (S) CPRs.

1270, Rohese age 15.

Bef. 7/15/1270, Roger married Rose.

Bef. 4/4/1273, Roger's mother died.

8/19/1274 at Westminster abbey, Edward I crowned king of England.

1278, Seisin to Roger de Mowbray, son and heir of Roger de Mowbray deceased, of all the lands of his father.

8/7/1278, Order to cause Roger de Mowbray, imprisoned in that castle [Windesore] for certain trespasses … and for a contempt done to the king, to be delivered to Maurice de Berkley, Nicholas de Sedgrave, Emeric de Sancto Amando, Ralph Basset, … and John de Sancto Johanne, who have mainperned to have him before the king. (S) CCRs.

1279, Seisin to Roger de Mowbray, son and heir of Roger de Mowbray deceased, of his part of the lands of Amice de Beauchamp. (S) Journal of the House of Lords, V108, P195.

1282-3, Roger summoned against the Welsh.

12/1282, King Edward defeated Llewelyn ap Gruffydd at the battle of Radnor in eastern Wales.

1283, King Edward continued his Welsh campaign, capturing and executing Dafydd, brother of Llewelyn; completing the conquest of Wales.

6/28/1283, Roger summoned to Shrewsbury by writ from Rhuddlan to the king to hold a colloquium to ordain what should be done with David, brother of Llewellyn, formerly prince of Wales. (S) The Titular Barony of Clavering, 1891, P16.

1284, Adjournment from the Assizes of an Amerciament against Roger de Mowbray, he being a baron.

Bef. 3/10/1288, Rohese's mother died.

1291, Roger summoned against the Scots; Miles de Stapleton in his retinue.

1293, Roger "de Molbray" held a market at Thirsk, North Riding, Yorkshire. (S) Gazetteer of Markets and Fairs.

1294, Roger going to Gascony in the King's service. [King Edward was involved in a long war to protect lands in Gascony from Philip IV of France.]

6/24/1295, Roger summoned to parliament by writ. [1st of 5 summons to parliament.]

1295, Roger de Moubray witnessed a charter of Gilbert de Clare, earl of Gloucester and Hertford. (S) CPRs, 8/15/1295.

1296, Roger obtained a charter of free Warren.

8/23/1297, Edward left England with 500 ships to attack France and assert his rights. Because of the refusal of many barons, Edward only had a small contingent of knights. The army sailed for Flanders to seek additional support.

Bef. 11/21/1297, Roger, 1st Lord Mowbray, Baron of Thrisk, Yorkshire died in Ghent, Flanders; buried at Fountains Abbey.

11/29/1297, Grant to William de Brewosa, staying with the king in Flanders, of the marriage of John son and heir of Roger de Moubray, tenant in chief, so that he may be married to Alina his daughter. Mandate to Roesia, late the wife of the said Roger, to deliver the said John. (S) CPRs.

1316, Rohese living.

(S) Magna Carta Ancestry, P599. (S) Journal of the House of Lords, V108, P195.

Children of Roger and Rose: [7 sons, 3 daughters]

i. John de Mowbray (5910160), born 9/4/1286 in Yorkshire, England.

Posted by Bond0007 at 12:46 PM

SATURDAY, JUNE 25, 2011

G24: 9994746 Clare

9994764. Earl Richard de Clare & 9994765. Maud de Lacy

Search Amazon.com for Women of English Nobility

10/28/1216, Henry III, age 9, crowned king of England.

8/4/1222, Richard born in England, s/o 19989528. Gilbert de Clare & 19989529. Isabella Marshall. [filium Ricardum (born to) Gilberto…Gloucestriæ et Hertfordiæ comes & domina Isabella filia Willielmi Marescalli senioris, comitis de Pembroke.]

1223, Maud born in England, d/o 19989530. John de Lacy & 19989531. Margaret de Quincy.

10/25/1230, Richard, a minor, succeeded as Earl of Clare to his father.

3/30/1231, Isabella, Richard's mother, married 2nd Richard of Cornwall, brother of King Henry III.

1231, Richard's wardship granted to Hubert de Burgh.

1232, Richard 1st married to Megotta [Margaret], d/o Earl Hubert de Burgh & Margaret of Scotland, d/o King William I of Scotland. [No children.]

10/21/1235, Richard contesting a new market because it might interfere with his market at Clare, Suffolk. (S) Gazetter.

1/19/1236, Richard, earl of Pembroke, carried a rod before the king at the coronation of Queen Eleanor. (S) Chronicles of the Age of Chivalry, 2000, P58.

1237, Richard divorced Megotta. [The marriage had been approved by the king – see next record.]

10/26/1237, Grant, with the counsel of Earl Richard, the king's brother, … to J. earl of Lincoln and constable of Chester, … if the king cannot attract the count of La Marche to his service by the marriage of Richard de Clare to the use of one of the count's daughters … then the said earl of Lincoln shall have the said marriage … for 5,000 marks … (S) CPRs.

11/1237, Margareta filia Huberti de Burgo died. [Any agreements of the divorce would no longer apply.]

1/25/1238, Richard [Ricardus de Clare] married [circa Purificationem beatæ Virginis] Maud [M filiam J de Laci comitis Lincolniæ].

2/14/1238, Presentation … the king's gift … by reason of the lands of Richard de Clare being in his hands. (S) CPRs.

1/17/1239, Richard's mother died.

9/27/1243, Richard took livery of his vast estates; "the foremost baron of England".

1244, Richard defeated by the Welsh.

7/9/1244, Mandate to J. de Munemuth to deliver the hostages of Mereduk son of Res in his custody to Richard de Clare, to whom the king has committed them … (S) CPRs.

12/27/1244, Power to Richard de Clare and Morgn de Karliun to receive Meredue Apres to the king's peace and service … (S) CPRs.

6/4/1245, Richard knighted by the King in London.

1245, Richard coheir to his uncle Anselm Marshal, Earl of Pembroke.

1246, Richard took into his own hands the mesne lordship of Miskin, Wales, and built a castle at Llantrisant. (S) National Library of Wales.

Richard created earl of Gloucester.

4/20/1248, Protection with clause volumus, until a fortnight after Midsummer, for Richard de Clare, earl of Gloucester, Thomas de Bello Campo, … Roger de Clifford, … who have gone on pilgrimage [to Santiago]. CPRs.

6/14/1248, Acknowldegement of the receipt … of 40£, the proportion of Richard, earl of Gloucester and Hertford, for the 32nd year of 200£ a year which the king pays for the said earl and the co-heirs of Walter Marshal, earl of Pembroke, to his sister Eleanor, countess of Pembroke, for her dower in Ireland. (S) CPRs.

1248, Richard de Clare, earl of Gloucester, founded the friars of St. Augustine of Clare. [Matilda, as a widow, made a further grant to them for the souls of herself and Richard.] (S) Women of English Nobility, Ward, 1995, P199.

12/1248, Richard held his court on the Welsh border.

3/4/1250, Protection with clause for Walter de Escoteny and Roger de Clifford, knights of R. de Clare, earl of Gloucester, going with the earl on pilgrimage beyond seas [to Champagne]. (S) CPRs.

1252, Richard traveled overseas to defend the honor of his brother William, who had lost his arms and horses in a tournament.

9/1252, Richard attened the Round Table tournament at Walden.

1253, Richard declined to join Henry III's expedition to Gascony, instead going to Ireland.
5/3/1254, Protection with clause volumus for the following who are going with the queen to the king in Gascony ; … The earl of Gloucester … (S) CPRs. [Prince Edward would marry Leonore at Las Huelgas in Burgos, which the queen attended.]

Richard created earl of Hertford.

11/20/1254 at Orleans, France, Charter … Witnesses:- Richard de Clare, earl of Gloucester and Hertford, … John de Plessitis, earl of Warwick, Geoffrey and William de Valencia the king's brothers, … [This charter sealed under the great seal again on 8/13/1355.] (S) CPRs.

12/10/1254, at Paris, France, Charter … Witnesses : Richard de Clare, earl of Gloucester and Hertford, John de Plessitis, earl of Warwick, … (S) CPRs.

9/9/1255, Notification by G. de Lezygnan and William de Valencia, the king's brother, R. de Clare, earl of Gloucester and Hertford, R. le Bygod, earl of Norfolk and Marshall of England, … received into safe conduct … Alexander, king of Scotland and Margaret, queen of Scotland, his wife, … to the king at Werk … (S) CPRs.

1255, Posing as knights of Robert de Roos, Richard and Roger le Bigod entered Edinburgh castle where King Henry's daughter complained that she was being kept separated from her husband King Alexander. They arranged for multiple knights to enter the castle and escaped with Alexander and Margaret.

9/24/1255, Pardon, at the instance of Alexander, king of Scotland, and Richard de Clare, earl of Goucester and Hertford, … (S) CPRs.

1256, Richard founded the house of Black Friars outside the west gate of Cardiff.

7/8/1256, Protection, with clause, for Richard, earl of Gloucester, gone to Almain as the king's envoy. (S) CPRs.

6/15/1257, Bond by the king, Queen Eleanor and Edward their first-born son, to … citizens and merchants of Florence … in 10,000 marks … satisfy the king's envoy to the court of Rome to the amount of 10,000 marks … Richard earl of Gloucester, William de Valencia, … Philip Lovel the treasurer, … the chancellor, have sworn on the gospels to see that these conditions are kept. (S) CPRs.

1257, Richard defeated by the Welsh.

9/4/1257, Power to Richard de Clare, earl of Goucester and Hertford, and Nicholas de Molis to admit into the king's peace, Mereduk son of Res. (S) CPRs.

1258, Richard was a leading member of the reforming party of barons in England. King Henry III's reliance on foreign advisers had antagonized many of the barons who regarded the royal policy as diminishing their own power and influence. Richard expelled the Welsh rulers from the western valleys of Glamorgan, as far as the Rhonda. A neighboring baron involved in the baron revolt was Llywelyn ap Gruffydd – prince of Gwynedd. [He would be influential in the life of Richard's son.]

7/1258, Richard and his brother poisoned by his steward, Walter de Scotenay. Richard recovered with the loss of hair and nails, but his brother died.

12/24/1258 at Westminster, Appointment … by the counsel of magnates … Present, Richard de Clare, earl of Goucester and Hertford, Hugh le Bigod, the justicary, … Richard de Grey, and others … (S) CPRs.

1259, Richard disagreed with Simon de Montfort and returned allegiance to the King.

2/7/1259, Licence for Richard de Clare, earl of Goucester and Hertford, to fortify the island of Portlaund with stone and lime and to crenellate it in the manner of a castle. (S) CPRs.

1259, Walter de Scotenay tried and hanged for administering poison to Richard and his brother William [William died.] (S) Notes & Queries, 1869, P333.

7/29/1259, Appointment of Roger de Monte Alto, … touching interruptions of the truce made between Richard de Clare, earl of Goucester and Hertford, and Roger de Mortuo Mari … (S) CPRs.

9/10/1259, Collation to Bozo son of Richard, earl of Gloucester and Hertford, of the deanery of Stafford. (S) CPRs.

5/20/1260, "Grant to Barons of Cinque Ports, in recognition of their praiseworthy service in transporting the King to France and bringing him back, … Witnesses: Richard de Clare, Earl of Gloucester …" (S) UKNA.

6/20/1260, Whereas divers contentions were moved between Edward the king's first-born son and Richard de Clare, earl of Goucester and Hertford, … (S) CPRs.

1261, The king lent a galley to Richard de Clare, earl of Gloucester and Hertford, which he returned at Winchelese. (S) CPRs.

7/15/1262, "Ricardus de Clare comes Glocestriae", 8th Earl of Clare, 6th Earl of Gloucester and 5th Earl of Hereford, died of poison at the table of Peter of Savoy, the Queen's uncle; buried in Tewkesbury, in the choir. (S) The History of Tewkesbury, Bennett, 1830, P173. The Bishops of Worchester and Landaff, 12 abbots, and a large number of Barons and Knights were present at the funeral. His tomb was erected by his widow Maud [it no longer exists.] His effigy was inlaid in silver.

7/8/1263, Grant to William de Valencia the king's brother, … lands late of R. de Clare, earl of Gloucester, … and to Maud late the wife of the said earl the fruits in the manors of … (S) CPRs.

3/26/1267, Although Gilbert de Clare, earl of Gloucester and Hertford, lately impleaded Maud his mother before the king touching the castle of Uske and certains lands in the March … (S) CPRs.

11/12/1275, Judgement was rendered between Matilda de Clare, countess of Gloucester, and Isabella de Fortibus, countess of Albemarle, concerning the manor … (S) CCRs.

5/22/1279, Thomas, son and heir of Richard de Royly quitclaimed to Matilda de Clare, countess of Gloucester and Hertford, the market rights of Manningtree. (S) Gazetteer of Markets and Fairs.

1280, Matilda de Clare, countess of Gloucester and Hertford, donated the manor of Sydinghow to the priory of Legh, Devonshire, for the soul of Richard formerly her husband, earl of Gloucester and Hertford.

1284, Maud founded an Augustinian nunnery for 40 nuns in Devon.

8/6/1285, The underwritten have acquittance of the common summons in co. Northampton … Matilda de Clare, countess of Gloucester. (S) CCRs.

8/20/1285, Commission … touching the persons who broke the park of Matilda de Clare, countess of Gloucester and Hertford, at Hovenden, co. Suffolk. (S) CPRs.

1286 & 1287, Matilda de Clare, countess of Gloucester, named in the IPMs of the Abbess of Legh. (S) CIsPM for Cornwall and Devon.

9/26/1287, Matilda de Clare, countess of Gloucester, staying in England, has letters nominating … for two years. (S) CPRs.

Bef. 3/10/1288, Maud died. [In her will Matilda de Clare left her copy of Ancrene Wisse, composed especially for religious women, to the Abbey of Canonsleigh.]

(S) Magna Carta Ancestry, P196.

Children of Richard and Maud:

i. Gilbert de Clare (4997382), born 9/2/1243 in England.

ii. Thomas de Clare (2498706), born ~1245 in England.

iii. Isabel de Clare, born ~1247 in England.
3/28/1257, Isabel married William II, Marquis of Monferatto.

iv. Bogo de Clare, born 7/21/1248 in England.
1294, Bogo died.

v. Margaret de Clare, born 1250 in England.
10/6/1272, Margaret married Edmund of Almain, s/o Richard, King of the Romans & Sanchia of Provence.
1290, Edmund excommunicated by the Archbishop of Canterbury.
1293-4, Margaret divorced from Edmund.
1300, Edmund, 2nd Earl of Cornwall, died. [No children.]
Bef. 9/16/1312, Margaret died.

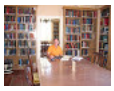
vi. Rohese de Clare (11820321), born 10/17/1252 in England.

Posted by Bond0007 at 4:30 PM

Home Next Posts

Subscribe to: Posts (Atom)

ABOUT ME



Bond0007

View my complete profile

Picture Window theme. Powered by Blogger.